CATHEDRAL SCHOOLS.
The three cathedral schools under Bishop Restarick are holding their closing exercises this week. On Tuesday afternoon a cantata was excellently rendered at St. Andrew's Priory called "The Contest of Flowers," under the direction of Miss Constance Restarick. The words of the cantata were written by Miss Marsh, the principal of the Priory. The rendition was made very pretty by the free use of the flowers of the islands. In the end the Poinciana regia was chosen Queen. The graduation exercises will be held tonight.

Last evening the closing exercises of St. Peter's Chinese school were held in the Sunday school rooms of the cathedral. If Secretary Garfield could have been present he would have been surprised at these young Chinese Americans, as they represented Uncle Sam, George Washington, Martha Washington and Colonial soldiers and rendered a number of good English patriotic dialogues. St. Peter's school under Miss Wills and Miss Taylor has done unusually good work during the year.

Iolani school closes tomorrow after a successful year. Iolani is a school which occupies a middle ground as to cost while at the same time its course includes the regular High School grades. The principal is the Rev. W. H. Bliss of the cathedral staff.

GOOD PLAYS IN THE BUHLER REPERTOIRE

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Buhler are so well known in Honolulu that the announcement of their coming is bound to create much pleasurable anticipation. Their last engagement at the Orpheum was artistically and financially successful, and both artists made hosts of friends. The engagement of Mr. Buhler and the Lumley company will be inaugurated at the Orpheum Monday evening, June 22nd, with the production of "The Climbers," a comedy drama which was made famous throughout the United States by Miss Amelia Bingham. While being one of the cleverest comedies ever presented in America, it tells the story of the ambition of people to climb the ladder of fame. The cast is a large one and will require the twenty old members of the Lumley company. "Brown's in Town," "The Love Route," "Raffles," "The Bishop's Carriage," and other high class plays are in the repertoire.

DEATH OF MRS. ANNA BOOTH LONG YESTERDAY

Mrs. Anna Booth Long died yesterday morning at the home of her son, C. W. Booth, in the Pauoa valley.

Mrs. Long was born in Kilmanac, Scotland, April 16, 1833, of Scotch parents and arrived with them in Honolulu from the old country in 1846. She was married to Joseph Booth, August 15, 1848. The marriage ceremony was performed by Consul General Miller and Kamehameha III. was the guest of honor at the wedding. During her long life Mrs. Booth-Long intimately knew six of the reigning sovereigns of Hawaii and lived under eleven administrations.

Mr. Booth dying, his widow married Captain Thomas Long, in 1872.

The funeral services will be held in the lecture room of Central Union church this afternoon at 3:30. Interment will be in Nuuanu cemetery.

MUST REPORT BY MIDNIGHT

The detachments on liberty yesterday from the battleships Maine and Alabama were required to be back at their ships last night by midnight, shore liberty expiring at that time.

While the fleet was in San Francisco and Los Angeles the men were not required to get back by midnight, and there was no little feeling manifested last night at the new order.

It appears that the order was issued in response to a request from certain parties ashore who were afraid that the presence of a large number of sailors in the town in the wee sma' hours might interfere with the public peace and disturb the quiet of the night.

There is a great deal of dissatisfaction among those who have gone to the trouble and expense of preparing comfortable accommodations for the men of the fleet while here, over the midnight return order.

CHINESE YOUNG AMERICANS.

A most interesting patriotic exercise was given last evening at the closing entertainment of the Chinese children of St. Peter's school. The Chinese students, dressed as Uncle Sam, Liberty, Washington's father and mother, soldiers of Bunker Hill, etc., recited their American pieces in excellent English. Questions on the flag and United States history were answered with much enthusiasm. Uncle Sam said: "There is no North or South or East or West. In my country we are all one." Children representing by their dress various countries and races were brought before Uncle Sam, and he said: "Yes, yes, these are all my children." The entire exercise showed how completely the Chinese children of Hawaii are becoming Americanized in this island Territory. Patriotic songs formed another part of the program.
